About the Three Day Cursillo Weekend

The above schedule is interspersed with group discussions, refreshments breaks, singing and prayer. Exact times are not included as they may vary. This mixed programme of activity and stillness is fitted into full days which generally start at around 7.30am and finish at about 10pm. There will be some free time, though the programme does not allow time for huge amounts. Over the weekend, it will become apparent that there is widespread prayer support for both pilgrims and staff before, during and indeed after the weekend. Spiritual Advisers are available at all times for pilgrims and lay staff. The three day programme forms a whole, and although the days are packed, you are encouraged to try to complete the whole programme if you can.
